

Travel information to Aarhus

Aarhus Airport

Aarhus Airport (Tirstrup) is located 40 km north of Aarhus and offers international flight connections to e.g. Oslo, Stockholm, Gothenburg and London.

Aarhus Airport also has flights to Copenhagen Airport with several daily departures. The flight from Copenhagen to Aarhus takes approx. 35 minutes.

In connection with most flights, there is an airport bus service between Aarhus Airport and Aarhus city. Travelling time to Aarhus city centre is approx. 50 minutes. Please note that the bus leaves the airport approx. 10-15 minutes after the plane has landed. Tickets are sold on the bus at DKK 115 (one way) – credit cards, EUR, GBP, USD, NOK and SEK are also accepted. The final bus stop is at the train station in the centre of Aarhus close to the major hotels. There is a bus stop at main university campus. If you get off there, you can either walk (about 2 km) or shift to bus line 5A (direction: Tangkrogen). Get off at Viborgvej/Vestre Ringgade. The airport bus ticket is valid in bus line 5A if you connect right away.

Aarhus Airport's website

Copenhagen Airport

Copenhagen Airport (Kastrup) has daily flights to many destinations worldwide.

Apart from the domestic flight connection to Aarhus Airport, there are direct hourly train services from Copenhagen Airport to Aarhus. The journey takes 3½ hours, and tickets are approx. DKK 418 (one way standard ticket).

Copenhagen Airport's website

Billund Airport

Billund Airport, located 100 km south of Aarhus, has direct international flight connections to several major European cities and a large number of other destinations worldwide.

There is an airport bus service between Billund Airport and Aarhus, bus number 912x. The journey takes approximately 1½ hours. Tickets are sold on the bus at DKK 160 (one way, the bus arrives at/departs from the main entrance of the SAS Radisson Hotel in Aarhus). You can pay using a credit card provided it has a chip. The direct bus, 912x, leaves on the hour.

Billund Airport's website