

NFN WORKSHOP LOCATION

The Nordic Finance PhD Workshop 2013 takes place at the Department of Economics and Business, Aarhus University, Denmark. The university is located near the city center and fairly close to the central train station. The hotel accommodation is situated in walking distance from the train station.

The address of the workshop venue is:

Department of Economics and Business

School of Business and Social Sciences, Aarhus University

Fuglesangs Allé 4

DK-8210 Aarhus V

Denmark

Link: <http://econ.au.dk/>

HOW TO GET HERE

Aarhus Airport

Aarhus Airport (Tirstrup) which is located about 40 km north of the city, offers international flight connections to e.g. Copenhagen, Oslo, Stockholm, Gdansk and London/Stansted.

In connection with the majority of flights, an airport bus service between Aarhus City and Aarhus Airport is provided. Travelling time to Aarhus city center is approx. 50 minutes. Please note that the bus leaves the airport approx. 10-15 minutes after the plane has landed.

Tickets are sold on the bus at DKK 100 (one way). You can pay with the following payment cards, if the card has a chip: Visa, MasterCard, Euro card, JBC and Dankort. Apart from DKK the following currencies can be used (only notes): EUR, GBP, USD, NOK, SEK and CHF. The bus company sets the exchange rate.

For more information about Aarhus Airport and the airport bus schedule

see <http://www.aar.dk/default.asp?id=87> and

<http://www.midttrafik.dk/k%c3%b8replaner/airport+bus+aarhus+airport>

Copenhagen Airport

Apart from the domestic flight connection to Aarhus Airport, there are direct hourly train services from Copenhagen Airport to Aarhus central train station as well as a bus connection. See more below.

For more information about Copenhagen Airport see <http://www.cph.dk/CPH/UK/MAIN/>

Train

There are direct hourly train services between Copenhagen Airport/Kastrup and Aarhus. The journey takes approx. 3.5 hours and tickets are around DKK 388 (standard ticket). Tickets can be purchased from the DSB ticket office in Terminal 3 above the railway station or online via DSB journey planner:

<http://www.rejseplanen.dk/bin/query.exe/en>

For more on DSB see <http://www.dsb.dk/om-dsb/in-english/>

How to take the train to and from Copenhagen Airport: There are lifts and travolators between the platforms and Terminal 3. You can take the free shuttle bus between Terminal 1 (Domestic) and Terminal 3, where the train station is located. This bus journey lasts about 5 minutes.

For more information see <http://www.cph.dk/CPH/UK/MAIN/Parking+and+Transport/By+Train/>

There are also excellent train connections from major cities in Germany to Aarhus.

Bus

Abildskou bus no. 888/LINIE 888 is a daily bus line between Aarhus and Copenhagen (Valdby Station) with a direct connection from Valdby to Copenhagen Airport/Kastrup (Terminal 2). The trip takes approx. 3.5 hours.

See more on <http://www.abildskou.dk/en/linie888/travel-information/various-travel-information/>